The sky's ve - ry cold in long win - ter days, ca - res - sing my dry hair, quiet - ly the days fade a - way. I step by step, the wind whis - pers at sun - set. My heart is cold and thin shoul - ders's prin - ted all your scent of love. The rain rushes o - ver the porch like slight o - dour of love flies a - way. I wan - der this place, re - mem - ber so much your kiss to me. My heart let out sounds of sad - ness. In this time I no long - - er hear your voice in the past. Now win - ter I am sad and talk to whom? A - - lone I get drunk, dream to your soft sweet lips. Life slow - ly fades and fades, I'm wai - - ting for you. The love's wi - thered! I keep sear - ching your face in sleep at win - ter nights.
